

Until recently, state and local laws required that each registered voter be mailed a copy of the Voter Information Pamphlet and Sample Ballot. Recently passed state and municipal laws allow voters to “go green” by opting out of receiving a Voter Information Pamphlet and Sample Ballot by mail, and accessing it online instead.

If you would like to stop receiving your Sample Ballot Booklet by mail, you simply need to fill out this short form and mail it to the Tuolumne County Elections Office.

Your sample ballot booklet will be available online 30 days before each election at www.tuolumnecounty.ca.gov/elections in the Elections section.

The law allows a voter who has opted out of receiving their material by mail to change their mind and go back to receiving their Sample Ballot Booklet in the mail at any time.

If you are currently receiving a Sample Ballot Booklet by mail and you would like to continue, then you don’t need to do anything. No change will be made unless you request it.

Application to Go Green and Paperless

I no longer wish to receive my Sample Ballot Booklet by mail and prefer to access it online.
